The Property

Offered with no onward chain, this fully modernised and beautifully appointed true bungalow occupies a prime position on one of Kenilworth's most desirable roads. The property has been thoughtfully renovated throughout with quality fittings, underfloor heating, and air conditioning in all bedrooms, creating a stylish and energy-efficient home.

A welcoming porch opens into a spacious central hallway, leading to the heart of the property – a stunning open-plan lounge with bi-folding doors seamlessly connecting to the rear patio. The lounge flows into a bespoke Shaker-style kitchen, complete with range oven and generous storage – ideal for contemporary living and entertaining.

There are three generously sized bedrooms, each with built-in wardrobes and air conditioning. The main bedroom suite is a standout feature, benefitting from high-quality fitted furniture, a luxurious en suite bathroom, and an adjoining hot tub room with twin bi-folding doors opening onto the raised terrace – the ultimate space to relax and unwind.

A stylish walk-in family shower room completes the internal accommodation.

Outside, the property features a block-paved driveway providing ample parking and leading to the integral garage. The rear garden has been beautifully landscaped with a tiered design, a large raised patio with glass balustrade, offering a private and impressive outdoor space perfect for entertaining. This is a rare opportunity to acquire a high-specification bungalow in a sought-after location, ideal for downsizers or those seeking luxury single-level living. Early viewing is highly recommended
