THE PROPERTY

A superb deceptively spacious character mews conversion that was formerly the Brew House to Kenilworth Hall. Situated in Old Kenilworth just off the Old High Street, opposite Abbey Fields and within walking distance of local facilities and amenities including many good restaurants. This fully gas centrally heated three storey cottage offers a spacious living room with lounge and dining area, fully equipped kitchen. On the first floor is a landing with two single bedrooms and a fully tiled modern white bathroom with shower. The second floor landing has a door off to the master bedroom suite with full bathroom. The property benefits a designated car parking space and situated in an enviable location. The property is available 30th May 2025 and is unfurnished.
