The Property

Set within a highly regarded development built in the 1980s, Lindisfarne Drive comprises an attractive collection of executive detached homes, characterised by their open plan front gardens and spacious plots. Over time, the estate has matured into one of Kenilworth's more desirable residential addresses, with many homeowners having thoughtfully modernised and extended their properties, further enhancing its reputation as a sought-after location.

Being set well back from the road, approached via a formal lawn and a block paved driveway leading to an integral double garage. Internally, the ground floor is finished with laminate flooring and is centred around a welcoming hallway with cloakroom. There is a generous through lounge featuring a fireplace and flowing into a quality conservatory, creating an excellent space for both everyday living and entertaining. The kitchen and dining room have been extended and now benefit from impressive vaulted ceilings, adding both light and a real sense of space. To the first floor are five well-proportioned bedrooms and a refitted family shower room. The principal bedroom provides a spacious king-size suite, complete with a dressing area and a stylishly refitted en-suite shower room.

Outside, the property enjoys a beautifully maintained rear garden, with a patio and terrace ideal for outdoor dining. The formal lawn is complemented by mature shrub and tree borders, offering a good degree of privacy.

Perfectly positioned for Kenilworth School and a range of local amenities, this is a fabulous opportunity to acquire a superb family home within a well-established and highly regarded setting. Viewing is highly recommended—you will not be disappointed.
