Bertie Road, Kenilworth, CV8 1JP

A beautifully extended late-1920s detached residence, enviably positioned in the very heart of Kenilworth town centre, just a short stroll from Waitrose. This charming home seamlessly blends character features with contemporary upgrades, having been significantly enhanced by the current owner to create a stylish and versatile living space.

Retaining a number of original period details, the property lies within the sought-after catchment for St Nicholas Junior School and offers well-balanced accommodation arranged over three floors. The ground floor comprises an inviting open porch leading into a welcoming reception hallway, a refitted wet room with W.C., and a superb through lounge/dining room opening into an extended, open-plan dining kitchen—ideal for modern family living and entertaining. A separate, refitted utility room adds further practicality.

To the first floor are three bedrooms, two of which are generous doubles, alongside a stylishly refitted family bathroom. The second floor hosts an impressive dormer double bedroom complete with its own en suite shower room.

Externally, the property enjoys a private walled and well-proportioned rear garden, with useful side access and a timber shed. To the front, a block-paved driveway provides off-road parking for two vehicles.
