The Property

A turnkey, extensively modernised and extended dormer bungalow, occupying an attractive corner plot and offering versatile accommodation arranged over two floors. The property has been comprehensively updated to a high standard, creating a stylish and comfortable home with a particularly impressive open-plan breakfast kitchen forming the heart of the house.

Approached via a tarmacadam driveway providing ample off-road parking, the property opens into a welcoming entrance hallway. The ground floor accommodation includes a well-proportioned lounge, separate dining room and the added benefit of a conservatory, providing excellent flexibility for both everyday living and entertaining. There is also a ground floor bedroom and a fully tiled bathroom, fitted with a panelled bath and thermostatic rainfall shower.

The extended breakfast kitchen is undoubtedly the focal point of the home, having been fitted with an attractive range of Shaker-style wall and base units, wood-block work surfaces and a central island with seating. Bi-folding doors open directly onto the wraparound garden, creating a seamless connection between the kitchen and outside space, while a lantern rooflight brings additional natural light into the room. To the first floor are two further bedrooms, together with an en-suite wet room, providing versatile accommodation suitable for family living, guests or those requiring additional bedroom space.

Outside, the property occupies a generous corner plot, with a wraparound garden incorporating a terrace adjoining the kitchen, formal lawn, established conifer hedging and further decked areas. A summerhouse provides useful additional space, whether for home working, hobbies or relaxation. Further benefits include gas central heating and double glazing, while the property has been finished throughout to a notably high standard. In all, 10 Parkfield Drive provides a rare combination of the practicality and versatility of a dormer bungalow with the feel and finish of a comprehensively refurbished modern home.
